

Millennium Invitational

On Sunday, May 5th, Master Janes hosted the Millennium Invitational at Lakeland Community College in Kirkland Ohio. Every year Master Janes has an excellent event for us and this year was no different. The community college is a beautiful venue, with plenty of room for competitors and spectators. The event boasted over 300 competitors, all eager to compete for the single National PKC points as well as the beautiful plaques that he had for them. The tournament started at 10 am sharp with the chanbara divisions followed by sparring, self-defense, weapons and kata. Master Dale McCutcheon announced the divisions while Darla Medal, John Barton and the Fickes Family coordinated the action on the floor. A special thank you goes out to this group; thanks to their tireless efforts that we were able to get through all divisions in 4 and ½ hours!!! In addition, thank you to all the black belts who came and judged, as we would not be able to run these tournaments without your help as well.

The competitors were ready for action. The larger divisions did not deter them from getting in the ring and giving it all they had. From the youngest and the most novice to the senior black belts, it was a great day for competition! By 3pm, the last division had been run and everyone was on their way home to enjoy the rest of their

Sunday. Congratulations again to Master Janes on this event. It was wonderful and I cannot wait until next year!
